3. Provide a minimum of 10 high quality jpeg photographs related to the project and appropriate for potential use in an awards presentation.

Applications and all related materials comprising a complete submission must be emailed to pedastaff@peda.org by the established deadline. Submissions should be typed in Times New Roman (size 12 font) and all documents comprising a submission - with the exception of photos - must be submitted as a single electronic document (PDF format). If your submission exceeds the capacity of a single email, please place your electronic materials in a DropBox folder and provide the link to PEDA. Winners will likely be asked to participate, as presenters, in a session of the 2020 Spring Legislative Conference.

While it is recognized that economic development occurs over time, nomination information and materials must focus on accomplishments completed in 2018 or 2019.

Nominations and all accompanying materials must be received by PEDA no later than December 31, 2019.

Comments or questions may be directed to PEDA Headquarters at (717) 441-6047 or pedastaff@peda.org.
